Dear Pastor:

It is with great joy and enthusiasm that I recommend to you Garry and Mindy Tingson as missionaries to Australia. The Tingsons were a part of our church and school staff for over seven years, and I served alongside of them as pastor for two of those years. During that time, I had the privilege to personally observe their desire to serve the Lord, their compassion for souls, and their zeal for the ministry.

Brother Garry is a national of Australia, and testifies of God's calling him back there to win souls and plant churches that will stand true to the Word of God. Mindy grew up in our church, and she met Garry while the two of them were in college. Together, they make a great team as servants of the Lord. The Tingsons are sent out of our church, and we are thrilled to partner with them in reaching Australia for the cause of Christ.

In Christ,

Kevin Dail
Pastor

About GARRY TINGSON

I was born in October of 1983 in Metro Manila, Philippines. When I was four, my family immigrated to Australia, where I would spend the rest of my childhood.

When I was thirteen, I was invited to a youth camp in Yarramundi. Pastor Israel Marquez presented the Gospel to me through God's Word, and on October 2, 1997, I trusted Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour. Under the ministry of Missionary Sherwin Ramos in Australia, I was baptized and began to grow in the Lord.

At the age of sixteen, I attended a conference in Adelaide. There I surrendered my life to the mission field. In 2002, I went on to Bible college in Queensland, where Missionary Mike Marsh Sr. was pastoring. Missionary Andrew Steers, who was the principal at the time, challenged me "not to limit God as to what He could do" and to consider pursuing my desire to go to Bible college at Hyles-Anderson College.

In the spring of 2003, I took the leap of faith and flew to Northwest Indiana to continue my studies and training there. I graduated from Hyles-Anderson College with a bachelor's degree in pastoral theology in 2007 and with a master's degree in school administration in 2008. I met my wife Mindy in my senior year at college, and we got married on July 25, 2009.

After getting married, I was hired on staff at Lakecrest Baptist Church in Waterford, Michigan, under the leadership of Pastor Marc Dalton and later, Pastor Kevin Dail. During my time on staff, the Lord slowly reminded me of the need in Australia. When I heard two American missionaries, who were unable to go back to Australia because the religious visa had been abolished, I believed the Lord was confirming my calling to go back and reach the people of Australia.

About MINDY TINGSON

I was born on November 5, 1988, in Southeastern Michigan. My parents raised me in the same fundamental Baptist church, Lakecrest Baptist Church, throughout my entire life. I had heard all the different Bible stories growing up in church and thought I had gotten saved at a young age. However, the older I got, the fewer details I could recall of the moment I had asked Christ into my heart, which caused me to doubt my salvation. Finally, at the age of twelve at a Youth Conference hosted by Dr. John Vapreszan and Metro Baptist Church in Belleville, Michigan, I accepted Christ as my personal Saviour. Although I had heard the stories, I never truly understood the enormity of Christ's sacrifice until the moment I received the gift of salvation. Upon the realization of Christ's true sacrifice that offered eternal life to me, I knew I had to do something in return. A week later, I was baptized by Pastor Doug Olson. A few months later, I surrendered my life to missions at a Youth Conference at First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana.

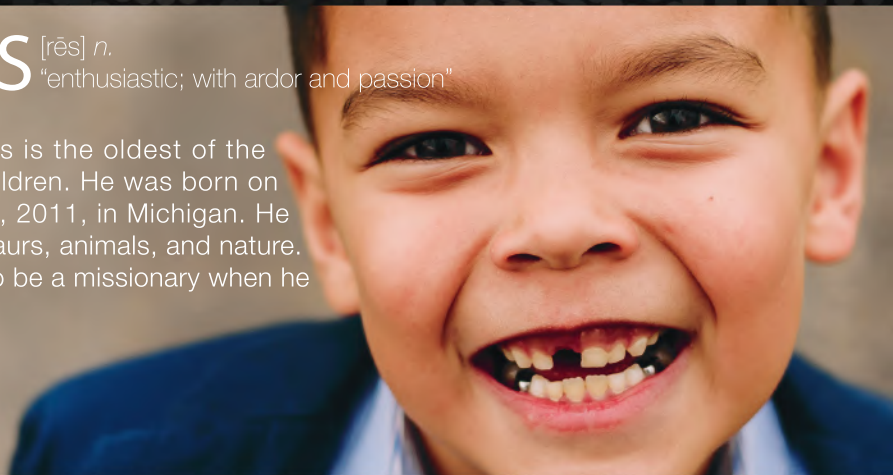

During my time in high school, I went on several missions trips to Mexico and Canada, which continued to knit my heart with missions and the impact the Gospel has on the world. My prayers changed from "Lord, send me to the mission field," to "Lord, send me toward the right person, or open the right doors," as I got older. I then graduated from Lakecrest Baptist School under the leadership of Pastor Marc Dalton and Bro. John Peck. I enrolled in Hyles-Anderson College, where I met my husband Garry. We were married on July 25, 2009. I graduated from Hyles-Anderson College in 2013 with an associate's degree in elementary education.

My husband and I lived in my hometown of Waterford, Michigan, and served on staff at Lakecrest Baptist Church, my home church, until we felt the call to spread the Gospel in my husband's home country of Australia.

About the TINGSON CHILDREN

RHYS [rēs] n.
“enthusiastic; with ardor and passion”

Rhys James is the oldest of the Tingson children. He was born on October 22, 2011, in Michigan. He loves dinosaurs, animals, and nature. He hopes to be a missionary when he grows up.

[ē-len] n. ELIN
“light; intelligent and beautiful”

Elin Lillian is the second child and the first girl in the family. She was born on November 8, 2013, in Michigan. She loves school, princesses, and waking up early in the morning. She hopes to marry Daddy when she grows up.

GWEN [gwen] n.
“fair; blessed”

Gwen lola is the baby of the family. She is our little firecracker, born on July 4, 2016, in Michigan. She loves her “Bruh-Bruh” and “Sissy,” sucking on her fingers, and giving Mum and Dad warm hugs. She hopes to go to school one day.

About AUSTRALIA

Australia, officially the Commonwealth of Australia, is a sovereign country comprising the mainland of the Australian continent, the island of Tasmania, and numerous smaller islands. It is the largest country in Oceania and the world's sixth-largest country by total area. The neighbouring countries are Papua New Guinea, Indonesia, and East Timor to the north; the Solomon Islands and Vanuatu to the northeast; and New Zealand to the southeast. The population of 25 million is highly urbanised and heavily concentrated on the Eastern Seaboard. Australia's capital is Canberra, and its largest city is Sydney. The "Land Down Under" is home to unique animals, fascinating landscapes, and diverse cultures. In fact, nearly half of the population were born overseas or have at least one parent who was. Australia is almost the same size as the contiguous United States but is remotely located in the Southern Hemisphere. Most Australians enjoy a modern, 21st-century lifestyle filled with materialistic prosperity. There's great potential and a great need for laborers in Australia!

Our VISION & GOALS

Winning Souls

Matthew 28:19

There are many towns and cities in Australia that have not been reached. My ultimate vision is to reach every household in Australia with the Gospel. I intend to do this by way of confrontational soul winning, mass literature distribution, and other media means.

Discipling Believers

Matthew 28:20

Many souls have been saved, but not many have been disciplined. My vision is to see a significantly higher rate of converts being disciplined in Australia. I intend on implementing a tried and tested discipleship and mentoring program for every convert won under our ministry

Training Nationals

II Timothy 2:2

There are only a handful of Bible college students in Australia, and I envision more people attending. My goals is to train nationals through an online Bible college. This will give more people an opportunity to pursue God's calling on their lives while still serving at their local church.

Planting Churches

Matthew 16:18

There are only about 180 independent Baptist churches in Australia, but there are still many cities and towns all around Australia without a Baptist church. My vision is to see scores of churches started in Australia. My goal is to start at least 10 Bible-believing churches in Australia.

Ministry Experience

Leumeah Baptist Church – 1997 to 2001

I spent my teenage years at Leumeah Baptist Church. I started off by joining the choir and singing in the bass section. During the summers of my college years, I was the youth leader and ran Junior Church and the teen activities. I led the soul-winning team during this time also. I've had the privilege to be involved in church plants in Sydney, Shoalhaven, and North Sydney.

Queensland Baptist Bible College – 2002

I started my first year of Bible college here. I was involved in the choir, soul winning and visitation, street preaching, and the media department.

Hyles-Anderson College – 2003 to 2008

While I was in college, I was involved in the Chicago bus routes, Bible Club, street preaching, and nursing home ministries. I also had the privilege to be heavily involved in a church plant in Chicago.

Lakecrest Baptist Church – 2009 to 2016

After graduating from college, I was hired on staff by my late pastor, Marc Dalton. I was a school teacher, pastor's assistant, adult Sunday school teacher, bus driver/worker, and media technician. I was also involved with the teen department and children's ministries.

The Lord also allowed me to be involved in a church that LBC planted in Madison Heights.

How Can You Help?

PRAY

One of the best things you can do for us is to pray for us on a regular basis. Our immediate goal is to raise our financial support to 100% so that we can leave for the field and start our ministry in Australia. Please pray that churches and individuals will see the vision and choose to commit to investing in our ministry. Please also pray for our safety and health in traveling all around the U.S.

INVITE US TO YOUR CHURCH

One way we can share our vision and our future ministry to the Australian people is to have us at your church, perhaps for your missions conference or Missions-Emphasis Service. Our goal, after sharing our ministry, would be to receive prayer support and monthly financial support. Contact us today. Our information is in the back of this booklet.

SCHEDULE A ONE-ON-ONE MEETING

If you are considering investing in our ministry as an individual or on behalf of a business, I would like to meet with you and discuss further our vision, goals, and methods in reaching the Australian people with the Gospel. Contact us today. Our information is in the back of this booklet.

GIVE OR INVEST

When you give financially to our ministry, you are investing in an eternal work with eternal dividends. As Paul says it in Philippians 4:17, “Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.” You may send your check to 507 State Street, Hammond, IN 46320. Please make checks out to “Garry Tingson” or “FBMI Missionary #176.” You may also visit www.fbmi.org/missionary/tingson and click on the “GIVE” button. Through FBMI’s online service, you can register as a donor, and you’ll be able to track your giving records. You can also schedule automatic recurring donations so you’ll never miss an opportunity to give! There’s also an option to give a quick donation.

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is John Peck. I am an Assistant Pastor, Bus Director and School Principal at the Lakecrest Baptist Church and School. I have had the honor and privilege of working with Bro. Garry Tingson since 2009.

Bro. Garry married one of our young ladies, Mindy Horton, and was hired on as a School Teacher and Pastors Assistant in July, 2009. At that time Bro. Garry stated that he knew it was God's Will for him to be a Missionary to Australia. He agreed to work full time at our Church for a period of time for more training and experience.

Bro. Garry has been faithfully involved in our Bus Ministry, as a worker and Bus Driver. He started a successful Young Adults Sunday School Class in 2011. Bro. Garry and his wife have been an asset in working with our Youth Department. He has been heavily involved in the Media of our Church. Bro Garry is a Fruitful, Faithful Soul-Winner.

I have had the honor and privilege of knowing Mindy Tingson and her family all of her life. Mindy comes from a godly home. Mindy grew up in our Church, attended and Graduated from our Christian School. Mindy has always been faithful to our Ministries here. She was my Bus Secretary for several years. Mindy has an excellent spirit, and works great with people. Mindy is also a faithful Soul-Winner.

I highly recommend Garry and Mindy Tingson to you as missionaries to Australia. I believe that they truly will be a great investment for the furtherance of God's Kingdom.

Sincerely,

John Peck

To Whom This May Concern:

Re: Recommendation for Garry Tingson

"And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me..." Ezekiel 22:30

I have known Garry since he was a child. I used to be the pastor at Leumeah Baptist Church, in the suburbs of Sydney in Australia where Gary was saved as a young boy, and was baptized not long after.

Since he got saved and through the years as he grew in the Lord, his desire to serve God was quite evident. Even as a youth, Garry was disciplined and dependable, as he displayed his willingness to persevere when assigned a task. When the Lord called him to the ministry, he surrendered without hesitation. While in Bible College, he needed to take a break for a year, to work and save up for the rest of his studies—meanwhile, taking on a role at our church as our children's ministry leader. He took on that role to heart, and with much enthusiasm, even when the task was at times very challenging.

I am thrilled that God is calling Bro Tingson to go back to Australia and serve as missionary to the people with whom he grew up, a people whose mindset he knows all too well. There is a tremendous need for young preaches in Australia. The average age of the pastors in the Independent Baptist movement is 50. Many churches have either closed up, or are struggling after their pastors left due to age, or sickness, or being led to a different place. Meanwhile, migrants are flocking into the nation. The major cities are struggling to accommodate everyone, and the sad thing is that the number of churches is dwindling. Australia needs a fresh batch of preachers, who have a heart for God, the strength of youth, and a clear vision of God's purpose for their lives. Garry Tingson is one of those.

In a nutshell, Bro Garry Tingson is a young man who has always had the perception to see the need, and has always been willing to stand in the gap and allow God to use him as He sees fit. Australia needs men like him. Please consider supporting the Tingson family.

In Christ,

Dear Pastor,

It has been my privilege to have known Garry Tingson for the past eighteen years. Everything about him over that time has served to convince me that this is a man with a heart to please God. At no point have I observed any wavering from God's calling upon his life. This is a man with commitment and an unswerving, faithful dedication to the cause of Christ.

I met Garry while serving at a church in Brisbane, Queensland. While out soul winning one day, he expressed a desire to go to Bible college in America but doubted that he could ever amass the funds necessary for such an endeavor. My initial response to his concern was, "How big do you think your God is?" Garry began to pray to a big God. Little did I realize just how serious he was in pursuing the will of God. Three months later, he informed me that the Lord had provided enough money to do exactly that. He enrolled in Bible college in Indiana and was actively involved in ministry while there. Not only did he finish his degree, but also met and married Mindy. They served the Lord faithfully together in Michigan for several years as their family was growing.

A new chapter is now opening for Garry in God's service. His heart is yielded to the Lord, and he is confident that just as the Lord has directed his every move hitherto, He is leading him to serve on the mission field of Australia.

I highly recommend this faithful young man, but I cannot emphasize enough the character that Garry has demonstrated over the years. Any church helping the Tingson family reach the mission field will not be disappointed in their investment. May I ask that you would prayerfully consider allowing the Tingsons to visit your church and present their vision for reaching lost souls here in Australia. They undoubtedly would be a blessing to you and your people.

Kind regards, in the service of our King,

Doctrinal Statement

God

We believe in the one true and living God, the Creator of all things. God is eternal, existing from everlasting to everlasting. This one true God consists of three: the Father, the Word (or Son), and the Holy Ghost, Who together in perfect unity are one. We are to have no other gods before Him.

Scripture

We believe the Word of God as found in the sixty-six (66) books from Genesis to Revelation is infallible and inerrant and perfect; it is the plenary and verbally inspired words of God to men. We believe God has also preserved every single word through the ages. God has divinely preserved His words for English-speaking people in the King James Version. We only use the King James Version Bible.

Creation

We believe all things were created by God the Father. We believe that the Word (the Son of God) was with God and that all things were made by and through Him and that without Him was not anything made that was made. We believe that the Spirit of God moved upon Creation and was also instrumental in bringing man to life. The original Creation was completed in six literal days.

Christ Jesus

We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the virgin-born, sinless Son of God. We believe that Jesus is from everlasting, that Jesus is before all things, and that from the beginning Jesus was with God and was God. Jesus is the First and the Last, the Author and Finisher of our faith, and the Almighty. Without ceasing to be God, Jesus became flesh. Jesus is the only Saviour, the Head of the church, and the only Mediator between God and man.

Holy Ghost

We believe that the Holy Ghost is God. The Holy Ghost reproves the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment. The Holy Ghost indwells all believers, bearing witness that they are sons of God, and is the earnest of their salvation, sealing them unto the day of redemption. It is God's will to pour out His Spirit on all of us in these last days, enduing us with power that we might be more effective witnesses. The Holy Ghost also imparts spiritual gifts, but does so as He wills. While signs and wonders may follow them that believe, we are not to seek after signs or sign gifts.

Satan

We believe that Satan is a created being, an anointed cherub. Iniquity was found in him, being lifted up in pride; he rebelled against God and was cast out from his position in Heaven. Satan tempts man and is a murderer, the father of lies, and the accuser of the brethren. Satan is to be resisted by us but not feared. We look forward to the day when he will be thrust through with the Sword coming out of Christ's mouth, trampled under our feet, and cast into the lake of fire.

Devils

We believe that Satan was followed in his rebellion by a group of angels. These fallen angels (known as demons or devils) make up the principalities, the powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places, against which we wrestle. The power of God that is in us is greater than the powers of darkness. Jesus demonstrated this by casting out devils with His Word, and, as Jesus said, with the finger of God.

Man

We believe that man was created in the image of God. God breathed into man, and man became a living soul. Man's soul will last forever. God created man for Himself, for His own glory and pleasure, and has a very specific will for man.

Sin

We believe that, through the first man, sin came into the world and death by sin. Everyone born of Adam has followed him in sinning against God, so death passed upon all men. The heart of sinful man is deceitful and desperately wicked. Therefore, every man has gone astray after his own way and has earned the wages of death and Hell. Every man is held accountable to God for his own sin.

Salvation

We believe that God in His love provided salvation by sending His Son to become sin for us, taking the penalty of death upon Himself, dying in our place, shedding His own blood as the only acceptable atonement for our sin. Christ was buried and rose again the third day. This salvation is available as a free gift of God's grace to all who will receive Him by faith. At the moment one stops trusting in his own way and places his trust rather in Christ and His finished work, he is born of God and granted eternal life.

Eternal Security

We believe that the salvation God authored for us is an eternal salvation. Jesus never casts anyone out of His family. Believers can never perish, shall not come into condemnation, but are already passed from death unto life. The saved are kept by the power of God, nothing can separate them from His love, and no one can pluck them out of His hand. Everyone who believes on Him is born of God, and whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world. These overcomers are then promised that their names will not be blotted out of the Book of Life. The saved are given the Holy Ghost as the earnest of their salvation and are sealed by Him unto the day of redemption.

Separation

We believe that saved people are commanded by God to separate themselves in their service for Him from unbelievers, from fellowship with unrighteousness, from communion with darkness, and from false religious worship. Believers should furthermore separate themselves from those who are called brothers yet are fornicators, covetous, idolaters, railers, drunkards, or extortioners. While we should be kind and forgiving to everyone, we should further withdraw ourselves from every brother who walks disorderly. While trying to reach the world, we recognize that friendship with the world is enmity with God and that God chastens those whom He loves.

Church

We believe that a church is a called-out assembly, as this is the meaning of the Greek word translated church. The first New Testament church was founded by Jesus. He is the Cornerstone, Foundation, Head, and Chief Shepherd of every true church. Each local church is made up of baptized believers. Those members called of God to lead the church are called elders or pastors. One of these men is chosen as the overseer or bishop, commonly called the pastor. God has delegated to him authority as an under-shepherd under Christ, and he is to rule the local church in much the same way a man would rule his own house. He also carries a heavy weight of accountability before God, as he is to know the state of his flock and watch for their souls. Church members can also choose deacons to help conduct the business of the church and thus allow their pastors to give themselves more fully to prayer and the ministry of the Word. All these men who lead a church are merely human, but their office should be magnified. Those who rule well should be counted worthy of honor, they should be followed and obeyed as they follow Christ, and they should be esteemed very highly in love for their work's sake. Just as disciples should seek to multiply by winning souls, each church should seek to send out workers to multiply churches.

Great Commission

We believe that the greatest mission of the church is to go, win, baptize, and teach. God has commanded us to get the Gospel to every nation and to every creature. While we understand that a majority will not be saved, we also recognize that God is not willing that any should perish. Jesus shed His blood for the sins of the whole world. It is His will that all men come to the knowledge of the truth. It is our desire to teach those who do receive the Gospel all the things that God has commanded us, equipping them to become soul winners themselves so the number of believers can multiply. To these ministries of reconciliation and discipleship, we willingly commit our lives.

Baptism

We believe that baptism is a step of obedience to fulfill righteousness. Biblical baptism is by immersion, as it pictures death, burial, and resurrection. We baptize converts in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Following the biblical pattern, we baptize each who is willing as soon as possible after he makes a profession of faith. This profession is the only biblical prerequisite to baptism.

Lord's Supper

We believe that the Lord's Supper was given to believers as a memorial of Christ's broken body and shed blood. Unleavened bread represents His sinless body, and the fruit of the vine (unfermented grape juice) represents His incorruptible blood. The Bible admonishes every man to examine himself when partaking of the Lord's Supper. No instructions were given as to how often the Lord's Supper is to be observed, but that as often as we observe it, we do so to show forth the Lord's death until He comes.

Return of Christ

We believe that Jesus Christ Who first came to His own is coming back for His own. He has gone to prepare a place for us and could at any moment return to receive us unto Himself. In that moment, this corruptible will put on incorruption, this mortal will put on immortality, and we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is, and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Later, after great tribulation on the earth, the Lord will return again, this time with His own, and we shall rule and reign with Him.

Eternity

We believe that everyone will be resurrected into eternity: the saved to eternal life and the lost to eternal damnation.
