Church Plant and National Pastor Spotlight

Pastor Otchere Boachie: “I thank God for the salvation of these three souls this morning. Before their salvation, they were unsure about going to Heaven when they died. But now their faith is in Christ alone for salvation, and they have eternal life. Praise be to God alone! We give thanks for these individuals who have trusted in the finished work of Christ for their salvation today. To God alone be the glory for the salvation of souls.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Offinso, Ashanti Region, Ghana

Pastor Kingsley Addai: “To God be the glory for the great things He has done this month. My wife Lydia's Bible Club program is doing well, and we rejoice in the Lord, as we see many of the children being saved. Some of these children are faithfully attending church because of the work she is doing. I ask for your prayers for my wife and for the children to grow in the Lord.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Mamponteng, Kumasi, Ashanti Region, Ghana

Pastor Rexford Aning: “These children (pictured) from our school showed up at the soul-winning meeting because of the Bible Club we have been conducting at our place. They are Graceman (in the red shirt), Henry, and Mina.

I thank God for Richmond, one of our students at FBA. He is growing in the Bible, and it is a privilege to disciple him on a weekly basis.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Fiapre, Sunyani, Ghana

Pastor Gyasi Boateng: “I went out soul winning and met a young man named Kwame Isaac, who was on his way to play soccer. During our conversation, he mentioned that he had stopped going to church and believed in salvation by works. I preached the Gospel to him, and he got saved. He promised to come to church, and the following day, he came and decided to go soul winning with me to preach to his close friends. He wants them to be saved, as he has received the Gospel. Please pray for him as he grows in his Christian life.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Foase, Ashanti Region, Ghana

Pastor Abraham Subui: “I thank God for the salvation of Joshua, whom I witnessed to about two years ago. He got saved but didn't consistently visit us. I prayed for him and visited him several times. However, after two years, he came back and asked us to pray for his wife. She also came and was already saved because her husband had witnessed to her. Now they are both faithful in church, and the husband is helping in the children's department. Please pray for this couple, as they are ready to serve the Lord.” – Salvation Baptist Church, Donkro Nkwanta, Bono East Region, Ghana
