

MICAH AND ABBIE CHRISTIANSSEN

August 2025

Dear Pastor and Praying Friends,

Ironically, it is cooler in Ghana right now than it is in most places in America. August is part of our cool season, and we enjoy highs in the low 80s and “suffer” through lows of low 70s or even high 60s! Yes, I have been in Ghana long enough that I find myself feeling cold!

However, the cooler weather is great for our Pastors’ and Workers’ Conference, which we just held August 12-15. Our conference theme was “The Key to Effective Ministry,” and we heard some great teaching and preaching on love, with a special focus on I Corinthians 13. I believe many were inspired to love God more and to allow God to love others through us.

I had the privilege of teaching some sessions on “Keys to Effective Children’s Ministry” during the afternoons of the conference. A man in one of our daughter churches came to me afterwards, all fired up to help his pastor get their children’s ministry going again after it had been shut down. The pastor was hopeful as well. Please pray that God would use these men to help their church reach children in their city.

I got to help one of our teenage boys with a Bible Club, which he was leading. What I believe I enjoyed the most was watching Prosper, one of our church’s teenagers who lived in the area of the Bible Club, do all of the work of gathering benches from the community and gathering a group of children who were ready to start Bible Club when we arrived. Since then, he has started coming to our evening services again.

We will begin a new academic year in September. Please pray that many students will be saved this year and that we will be able to give the Gospel to many parents.

Yours for souls,

Micah Christiansen

Fruit to Your Account

Normally, when you go soul winning, you go find people to whom you can give the Gospel. However, this time, the people kept coming to us!

My soul-winning group was about to go out of our church compound’s side gate when four boys came walking in. I recognized one of them, Marcus. I had started to witness to Marcus two weeks before, but he was about to play football, so I did not get very far. Now was my chance!

Two of the boys with Marcus did not speak English, so one of the teenagers who was with me witnessed to them. The other boy with Marcus was already saved; he used to come to our church.

While I witnessed to Marcus, children kept coming in through the church’s gate. The three teenage boys who were with me were all able to get some children to whom they could witness. One of them even got a second group!

Marcus chose to put his faith in Jesus alone for salvation, and the teenagers got to witness to about nine other children, several of whom professed faith in Jesus.
