THANKSGIVING
2025

Hurricane Melissa has been etched into our memories and will be there for a very long time, but your prayers for and help to us during this time have been etched into eternity. There is just so much we could not have done without you!

Our family will celebrate Thanksgiving somewhat differently this year, yet one thing that won't be different is our appreciation for you! We thank the Lord for you!

May the Lord continue to bless you this Thanksgiving and always.
