MISSIONARIES TO MEXICO

December 15, 2025

Dear Pastors, Supporting Churches, and Praying Friends,

Thank you for your prayers and faithful support for the campaign in the capital city of Chiapas. The Lord is working here in a wonderful way.

The people of Chiapas are a little different from the other people where we have worked in Mexico, in that they have had very little exposure to the Gospel. The area we have been working in is also a working-class area, not a poor area. Nevertheless, many of the people here have now heard a clear presentation of the Gospel and made decisions, some for courtesy, but many have sincerely considered the principles of the Gospel. We have not had as many workers here as in the other campaigns this year either, but still the Lord is not limited. The new church here is getting off to a slow start, but a good start nonetheless, and not for lack of effort.

I was invited to preach the first Missions Conference in the new church here and was surprised to have seven other churches attend the conference. It was good to see our meeting place overflowing. The Lord used Viry with the ladies and James Buskager, who has been working with us this year, with the children. The new church wants to start supporting their first missionary.

Viry and I will be home for Christmas and make a necessary trip to the border in the first week of January. In the middle of January, we will be heading to the city of Puebla for an eight-week endeavor with the new church there. It would be nice to have more workers. We certainly need your prayers.

We are deeply grateful for the privilege and honor to be one of your missionaries and/or in your prayers. We hope you all have a wonderful Christmas. We are praying for you also.

Yours for souls,

Chris & Viry Sage
