MISSIONARIES TO MEXICO

February 1, 2026

Dear Pastors, Supporting Churches, and Praying Friends,

Thank you for being a part of our ministry in 2025. It is because of your prayers and support that God did such wonderful things in 2025. Viry and I had a very relaxing Christmas and New Year's season, and it gave us time to reflect on what God did in 2025. It was truly amazing, and God deserves all the glory!

He gave us many marvelous, wonderful, tireless workers. It is not easy to find people willing to go soul winning and do discipleship 6-8 hours a day, but the Lord did it. There is no way to measure the value of such a worker, someone fully yielded to God and filled with the Holy Spirit. He gave us 5-10 in each campaign.

We had little expectations of great results in Uruguay, but even there the Lord gave us over 200 people saved and many visitors in the 2 churches we were enabled to help. Our first church started from scratch was last summer in a small town in Zacatecas, Mexico. After a slow start there, the Lord gave us 77 visitors and 10 family units that were attending at least once a week. Guerrero was equally amazing! In the afternoons, we worked with an indigenous group of people who spoke little Spanish, and 33 of them made bold declarations of their faith in Jesus Christ and their desire to be Christians. In the mornings, we worked in a small town with an established church where they did speak Spanish. The Lord gave us 7 families that were attending faithfully and are still. Also in Chiapas, the Lord worked in a wonderful way. For the year, there were a total of nearly 1,000 saved, but the greatest blessing was to see many in church, following the Lord, and becoming soul winners themselves!

We do need your continued prayers and support as we look to help 5 new churches get off to a good or even a great start in 2026. Workers and finances are big needs, and the most important thing is the presence of God and the fullness and power of the Spirit. We have included a video for you with this letter (English Chris Sage Video).

Yours for souls,

Chris & Viry Sage
